WIN OVER HARVARD

Princeton and Cornell Lead in Race for Eastern Gridiron Championship—Two Crimson Fumbles Produce Two Roper Scores

gitle—that is, not carried to a specific Day.

Cornell and Princeton are the only undefeated and untied teams in the East. The Ithacans boosted their bid for the crown several notches by decisively trimming Dartmouth, 23 to 0, and Bill Roper's "wildcats" gave Harvard athletes their first defeat of the season. 10 to 3, thus lifting themselves the championship class.

season. 10 to 3, thus lifting themselves into the championship class.

Gil Dobie's team has only a practice game intervening before the big battle with Fenn on Franklin Field. The Ithacans will have a romp next Saturday against Albright, while the Quakers must take on Penn State. The long seat for Cornell and the tough Red and Shu schedule as well as the records of Shu season points to an Ithacan Blue schedule as well as the records of the two elevens points to an Ithacan victory, but Penn-Cornell games can be speed no better than a layman can guess the weather for these November

West Virginia was also engaged in an intersectional contest. Tubby Spears' athletes came through with a 33-0 triumph over Indiana. The Presidents had a practice prance with Wabash, winning 32-6.

Michigan and Iowa are undefeated in the Middle West. Howard Jones' team trimmed Minnesota 28-14. Michigan had an off day. The Wolverines have not been scored on this season.

In the far West Andy Smith's California eleven has another championship cinched. Smith's students manhandled Washington State 57-7, and passed the 300 mark in scoring. The Californians lead the country in point-gaining.

PENN STATE came back after its defeat by the Navy and downed Carnegic Tech 10-0. This was no mean feat, for the Pittsburgh team ranks with the top-notchers.

Lianerch Teesmen Battle Home Course Searching Lower Figures Than 66 Record Score

JOHN EDMUNDSON HOLDER

By SANDY MeNIBLICK ONE of the golf clubs hereabouts well puffed by reason of the playing talent of its membership is the Llanerch Country Club. Its caste is now in the throes of passing an otherwise inactive winter golf period in trying to cut a stroke or so off the record for the course which is held by John Edmundson, the well-known pro there.

Edmundson scored a 66 for the course there this season, and the nearest mark to that is the 67 made by Marcus Greer, one of the club's sterling set of amateurs. Par for the Llanerch course is 69. It takes great golf to round the course in those figures. The professional there, however, did all of the eighteen holes in par-figures except three, and on each of this latter trio the mighty pro scored a bird.

As a record this score of 66 looks fairly impeachable, especially when it is noted that Juggernaut John had a 33 each chable, especially when it is noted way.

Par is 6 on one hole, the long third.
655 yards. On the next three holes there was a total of 8 strokes taken 3.
3, 2, for three holes that total virtually 1000 yards.

Making Record Score

Edmundson played this day with his brother, James Edmundson, pro at North Hills, who had a 72, and also with Bob Barnett, Tredyffrin pro, who trailed with 74. Their three cards, for comparison, follow:
